Our wholesale pricing is attractive, but it's our customer service that sets us apart! Making your next Special Events project hassle-free is why we're here.

It's Easy as 1, 2, 3...

We follow a simple three step process that's proven successful in bringing high-satisfaction, low-stress results!

1. Design Consultation

Here's where the fun begins! Our Art Department is all about taking your design ideas to the next level. Want something new that will catch the eye of your students and community boosters? The Design Consultation starts the process!

Original Designs For You: Yes, we can reproduce your established logos on top-shelf, high-quality apparel and will be happy to do so. What we're really excited about is working with you to create new event-oriented designs in order to reinvigorate your activities. The Design Consultation is geared toward giving your Special Events IMPACT! What a great way to start the process!

2. Apparel Selection

We've spent hours with your CAIS PA volunteers to select the high-quality, time-tested items found at the Boutique. Choose from these for best results. We suggest no more than five items be offered for any given Special Events project.

Preparation and Delivery of Marketing Supplies: SCP Corp is committed to making your Special Events program a hassle-free experience for all. Once Design and Apparel selections are made, our marketing team has everything needed to add your items to the CAIS PA Boutique. Your items will be found under the "Special Events" link at the top of the Boutique's homepage. This makes it easy for all parents and CAIS supporters to order just what they need for your event!

3. Profit Share Accounting

We saved the best for last! While high-impact Special Events apparel is great for building school camaraderie and excitement, the bottom line is fundraising! Your time and effort is about putting cash in your coffers - we understand this!

Wholesale Pricing Drives Profits: Your school's fan base and loyalty has extreme value; capitalizing on this by offering affordable Special Events Wear is the path to high profits. Our quote structure is based on supplying all your gear at wholesale prices so you can keep your prices to your parents low and still enjoy significant mark-ups.

Make 20% on Each Product Sold! Our volume purchasing power and efficient operations allow us to bring you the best prices in the industry. Call today for a quote and you'll see how your 20% profit is ensured even as you offer the Special Events items at competitive prices to your students, parents and community.
